

On Sunday evening, April 13th (Palm Sunday) (Passover) at 5:00 PM, we will be having a Passover (Sedar) meal followed by the Lord's Supper.

While it is not a requirement for Christians to celebrate the Passover, it is beneficial to understand and celebrate the Passover if it leads to a greater understanding and appreciation for the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus Christ.

Did you know, the New Testament Church observed the Passover?

Paul, when writing to the mostly gentile congregation in Corinth - For indeed Christ, our Passover, was sacrificed for us. Therefore let us keep the feast. (1 Corinthians 5:7-8). Later in the letter, Paul reviewed the practice of observing Passover, affirming the significance and serious nature of this festival of God for the Church community (1 Corinthians 11:17-32).

Rather than being a feast of the Jews, the Bible shows Passover and other festivals belong to the Lord (Leviticus 23:1-2).

On Sunday evening, April 13th (Palm Sunday) (Passover) at 5:00 PM, we will be having a Passover (Sedar) meal followed by the Lord's Supper.

While it is not a requirement for Christians to celebrate the Passover, it is beneficial to understand and celebrate the Passover if it leads to a greater understanding and appreciation for the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus Christ.

Did you know, the New Testament Church observed the Passover?

Paul, when writing to the mostly gentile congregation in Corinth - For indeed Christ, our Passover, was sacrificed for us. Therefore let us keep the feast. (1 Corinthians 5:7-8). Later in the letter, Paul reviewed the practice of observing Passover, affirming the significance and serious nature of this festival of God for the Church community (1 Corinthians 11:17-32).

Rather than being a feast of the Jews, the Bible shows Passover and other festivals belong to the Lord (Leviticus 23:1-2).

The meaning of Passover for you

The Bible presents ample evidence that God established the Passover. Jesus and the New Testament Church of God faithfully observed it. Those who observe this festival benefit from the vibrant and resonant meaning embedded in the Passover.

This ancient practice foreshadowed the coming of Jesus and His redemptive sacrifice to enable salvation for the human family.

The apostle Paul explained that Jesus is our Passover (1 Corinthians 5:7). Jesus lived and died, shedding His blood to pay our death penalty.

*Peter boldly proclaimed that Christians are redeemed with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot. (1 Peter 1:19).

Far from being just an ancient practice, the festival of Passover is relevant for everyone today.

Trust me when I say, you don't want to miss it. This is a wonderful time to invite your friends and family to join us.

If you would like to attend we must have a RSVP in order as everyone will have a special place at the table and everyone's needed items.

Yes, I will be attending the Passover Meal and Lord's Supper.

Name: _____

Number of guests: _____

The meaning of Passover for you

The Bible presents ample evidence that God established the Passover. Jesus and the New Testament Church of God faithfully observed it. Those who observe this festival benefit from the vibrant and resonant meaning embedded in the Passover.

This ancient practice foreshadowed the coming of Jesus and His redemptive sacrifice to enable salvation for the human family.

The apostle Paul explained that Jesus is our Passover (1 Corinthians 5:7). Jesus lived and died, shedding His blood to pay our death penalty.

*Peter boldly proclaimed that Christians are redeemed with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot. (1 Peter 1:19).

Far from being just an ancient practice, the festival of Passover is relevant for everyone today.

Trust me when I say, you don't want to miss it. This is a wonderful time to invite your friends and family to join us.

If you would like to attend we must have a RSVP in order as everyone will have a special place at the table and everyone's needed items.

Yes, I will be attending the Passover Meal and Lord's Supper.

Name: _____

Number of guests: _____