Wherefore lay apart all filthiness and superfluity of naughtiness, and receive with meekness the engrafted word, which is able to save your souls - James 1:21

Prior to his encounter with Jesus Christ, no one would have mistaken Saul of Tarsus, who became the apostle Paul, for a meek or humble person. His focus in life was his personal advancement as a Pharisee in Judaism. He was not teachable; his heart and mind were closed to the Gospel.

Nicodemus was also a Pharisee, a “ruler of the Jews”, but he had a teachable heart. He met with Jesus at night to try to understand who Jesus was. He was not too proud to ask questions and consider that perhaps his understanding was limited. In fact, he accompanied Joseph of Arimathea to bury Jesus after the crucifixion. One of the marks of humility (meekness) is a teachable spirit, a willingness to learn from God and from others who know Him well. The psalmist prayed, “Open my eyes, that I may see wondrous things from Your law.”

Meekness is having a teachable spirit.

Celebrate Passover ... April 13th

A Passover meal along with the Lord's Supper like you have never had before.

7 Lessons in the Passover Meal:

1. A Lamb Was To Be Taken - The Lord Jesus is referred to as "The Lamb" over 20 times in the book of Revelation.

2. It Must Be A Perfect Lamb - The Lord Jesus is the Lamb without spot and without blemish.

3. It Was To Be Kept Up From The 10th Until The 14th Day Of The Month – This was to make sure to see if some blemish would be found in it.

4. It Must Be Killed - The chosen Lamb, the perfect Lamb, the tested and tried Lamb must be killed. The Lord Jesus Christ is the Lamb of God who takes away the sins of the world.

5. The Blood Must Be Applied - It availed naught unless it was applied to the door posts of the houses. In the same way the blood of Christ must be applied, by faith, to the door posts of our hearts.

6. The Lamb Was To Be Eaten - In a very real sense we feed on Christ when we feed on the written Word of God.

7. How It Was To Be Eaten - Eat it in haste. This speaks to us of being ready for the Lord's return.

If you plan on attending this ministry night, we ask you to please fill out an RSVP form which are in the foyer, or if it will make it easier for you, you can text the pastor with your name and how many will be coming ... Forms are in the foyer.
